Opposites Abstract at Two Moon Gallery

Exhibition Featuring Abstracts in oils by Jean C. Glenn and wood by Brad Sells

Nashville, Tenn. –Refined abstract art is hard to come by. However, pairing two abstract artists with opposite styles and media equals a match made in heaven...or at Two Moon Gallery. The Glenn/Sells opening night will be Thursday, September 1 from 5:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Jean C. Glenn of Atlanta, GA has quickly become an established artist the Southeast art scene. Her colorful ordered, yet disordered patterns in oil make every onlooker come in for a second glance, and a third.

Brad Sells of Cookeville, TN travels from local farms to the forests of Africa (and everywhere between) to find the right fallen specimen for his magnificent creations. Sells creates new life for these once standing trees.

Find works by Jean C. Glenn, Brad Sells or other artists with Two Moon Gallery at 2905 12th Avenue South #108, Nashville in the 12th & Paris building. Call us at (615) 942-5352 or visit us online at twomoongallery.com.

About Two Moon Gallery

Two Moon Gallery represents a select number of strong American artists who have a variety of styles and approaches. Each member of this contemporary gallery uses his and her own unique voice and technique in striving toward a national career. Two Moon primarily operates as a consignment gallery representing some of the nation's finest artists. Secondly, the gallery leases the space out for merchants and small events for two evenings, while featuring the beautiful artwork. Lastly, Two Moon leases walls for a period of two evenings to artists who would simply like to show their work for a one-time only show select months of the year.
