Satisfy the Art Appetite with Two Moon Gallery

-- Get Your Fill with New Artists and a Full Calendar--

Nashville, Tenn. –Two Moon Gallery has not only filled the calendar (and still adding more events) with amazing artists from across this country, they also welcome two new artists to its roster of contemporary artists; Louise LeBourgeois of Illinois and Erin Parish of New York.

About Louise LeBourgeois

Born New Orleans, Louise LeBourgeois is eternally drawn to the ocean and the infinite horizon line it creates with the sky. Her soothing waves and her somber color palette create somber mood in her oils. After painting and teaching in Chicago most of her adult life she is happy to be showing her work in the South where her original roots are. So is Two Moon Gallery.

About Erin Parish

Originally from Detroit, MI., Erin Parish now lives and works in Miami and New York. Parish's many layers of luminous circles create a hypnotic beauty in her abstract paintings. And her senses of composition and color add a rich sophistication.

About Two Moon Gallery

Two Moon Gallery represents a select number of strong American artists who have a variety of styles and approaches. Each member of this contemporary gallery uses his and her own unique voice and technique in striving toward a national career. Two Moon primarily operates as a consignment gallery representing some of the nation's finest artists. Secondly, the gallery leases the space out for merchants and small events for two evenings, while featuring the beautiful artwork. Lastly, Two Moon leases walls for a period of two evenings to artists who would simply like to show their work for a one-time only show select months of the year.
